

SCHOOL MISSION

The KYCAA Chinese school is a new educational program Kentucky Chinese American Association (KYCAA) has established to meet the growing needs for Chinese language and art education in Lexington. The School, conveniently located inside the Lafayette High School, features excellent teachers, a curriculum most suitable for students growing up in the US and a professional advisory team.

As the leading Chinese American organization in the Commonwealth. KYCAA is committed to making the Chinese school a great place for Chinese language learning and cultural immersion.

Chinese Culture & Arts Program

Our students will benefit from our Chinese culture and arts program. They will deeply understand & appreciate Chinese culture from their learning experience. Every year, they will have stage perform on Lexington Opera House or UK Singular center for the art on Chinese culture events such as Moon festival, Chinese new year celebration. Our Chinese culture and art teachers includes master dancer / musician / professor from Kentucky Arts Council, University of Kentucky, etc. Those large-scale events are broadcast by Television, Internet and Newspaper.
