KEY TERMS USED IN TABLE

"Qualified" immigrants are: (1) lawful permanent residents (LPRs); (2) refugees, asylees, persons granted withholding of deportation/removal, conditional entry (in effect prior to Apr. 1, 1980), or paroled into the U.S. for at least one year; (3) Cuban/Haitian entrants; and (4) battered spouses and children with a pending or approved (a) self-petition for an immigrant visa, or (b) immigrant visa filed for a spouse or child by a U.S. citizen or LPR, or (c) application for cancellation of removal/suspension of deportation, whose need for benefits has a substantial connection to the battery or cruelty. Parent/child of such battered child/spouse are also "qualified." Victims of trafficking (who are not included in the "qualified" immigrant definition) and their derivative beneficiaries are eligible for benefits funded or administered by federal agencies, without regard to their immigration status.

"Not qualified" immigrants include all noncitizens who do not fall under the "qualified" immigrant categories.

ENDNOTES

² LPRs are eligible if they have worked 40 qualifying quarters in the U.S. Immigrants also get credit toward their 40 quarters for work performed (1) by parents when the immigrant was under 18; and (2) by spouse during the marriage (unless the marriage ended in divorce or annulment). No credit is given for a quarter worked after Dec. 31, 1996, if a federal means-tested public benefit (SSI, food stamps, TANF, Medicaid, or SCHIP) was received in that quarter.

³ Children are not subject to sponsor deeming in the food stamp program.

⁸ In states that opt to cover fetuses, SCHIP provides prenatal care regardless of the mother's immigration status. The scope of coverage depends in part on how the option is implemented.

⁹ For applications based on Social Security numbers issued on or after Jan. 1, 2004: must have been assigned a Social Security number that was, at the time assigned or at any later time, valid for work purposes. Alternatively, must have been admitted to the U.S. temporarily for business or as a crewman when the relevant work quarters were earned.
